sadness, anxiety, or poor concentration and can also include physical symptoms, such as breast tenderness.

and because of this lack of knowledge, most women are not aware that they may be having breakthrough ovulations, and conceiving children that are killed very early in the pregnancy.

no seriously i wasn't bad at all, just a bit of nausea some days and it wasn't bad at all, very tired too, but knowing you, you will sail through it.