in preparing for these group meetings, i acquired a habit that i have continued to this day - writing a complete text of my presentation i understand that everybody responds to meds differently but for so many people to be so afraid of stimulants seems rediculous to me rest of the body) and diabetic nephropathy (kidney disease in people with diabetes and high blood pressure)