the process can be more complex for a natural product such as enoxaparin.

if a more pure form of beta-sitosterol was used in manufacturing instead of a phytosterol complex these other ingredients would not be necessary that is why i refer to them as unproven fillers