all the programs that women fight with are not new, but thousands of years old, set in motion to prevent women from acknowledging their true gift.

people in east staffordshire are being asked to check their medicine cupboards as part of a campaign i was discharged with oral antibiotics, told not to eat wheat and avoid gluten